

Interfaith relationships

There are often stories in the media about religious tensions, and Luton has been mentioned as a place of violent protest by radicals in recent days. Please pray fervently for the peace of our town now and in the future. We need to remember the verse in Jeremiah 29.7:

“Seek the peace and prosperity [shalom] of the city where I have [put you]. Pray to the Lord for it, for if it prospers you will prosper.”

Please pray especially against fear, and for people from every community to offer neighbourly support to one another.

Thank God for the very good relationships maintained between members of the Luton Council of Faiths, who have pledged to stand together to oppose extremist violence of all persuasions. Please remember Peter Adams from St Mary’s Church who represents Luton’s Christians on that council.
